IS HE THE BOMB-THROWER

CAPTAIN BAL, THE ANARCHIST, ARRESTED IN OMAHA.

When Fiel Has Being in a Real-Estate Office for Some Hours—Fiel Appears Greatly Frightened, but Finally Takes Down and Eats the Notes a Step Which the Latter Refuses to Do Later—An Alleged Large Anarchist Organization in Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., June 3.—[Special.] Quite a few hours ago three officers called Bral's residence and arrested Baltazar Bal, who is wanted in Chicago for complicity in the Haymarket outrages in the Haymarket. Bral's place of a room in Dorsey's, and the rest of it at the back of the local organization. Its name is variously given to be known Frightened. He lived at No. 21 Harrison street, and was the attorney agent of the Arbeiter-Zeitung, and is supposed to be one of the men who planned and helped to carry out the bomb-throwing incident. He came to America six years ago and has been in Chicago. In an interview he manifested fear and disinterest at knowledge of or connection with the tragedy, and said he came here for fear of his possession of bombs for the Arbeiter-Zeitung. It has been proved, however, that he, some days before that time had had he sought to dispose and conceal himself as much as possible. Cleaner and properties which he is said to have worn in Chicago was deserted here, and he cried by other names to keep such his identity. He is 30 years old, well built, with manly muscular and genial. It is presumed that he is one of the indicted men whose names were not made public. He will be held until the arrival of an officer from Chicago.

When Bral had talked down sufficiently to his in spite of his connection with the Arbeiter and surrendered his original story about that he was not the owner of the machine-throwing and bomb carriage of it, the night of the meeting at the Haymarket," he said, "I was not present at the meeting. I was in the center of the meeting. I was in the crowd and took no part in the proceedings. I simply paid little attention to what was going on and can't remember who spoke. I had formed no opinion to him. I didn't say anything to him about bomb-throwing or plots. I simply said 'Good evening.' I never met Parsons after words. I remained at that meeting perhaps half an hour and then went to another meeting in the 100 West Lake street. That was a rather rich, and I went from there, going home at last to bed. I didn't know anything about the meeting until next morning."

"Wasn't you afraid of arrest?"

"No, I had nothing to do with the affair, and wasn't afraid. I went to work as usual in the morning and then afternoon."

"Did the Arbeiter-Zeitung don't have the next day?"

"I have to didn't, but I learned just the time and manner of publication afterward."

"Didn't you have Chicago Democrats were known as Lieutenant Gould to Frank against him?"

"No, sir; I was never warned, and didn't pay any attention to what the papers said was in the Arbeiter-Zeitung because the Arbeiter-Zeitung has about 500 subscribers to Omaha, and it was necessary that some one should come and have our true after and some collections."

"Are the Anarchists so strong here?"

"I don't know anything about the Anarchists."

"When did you come here?"

"I left Chicago on a Chicago, Burlington & Quincy train the night of May 5, so as to be in good service here. We left Chicago after the bomb-throwing."

"You are still employed by the Arbeiter-Zeitung?"

"Yes."

Bral is not showing temper, and once said what it was thought would be done with him, as to questionable of rough treatment, upon his arrival in Chicago.

The police have been busy tracing the man's actual name, and during the morning sent a telegram to Chicago to learn if there was a man by that name there. It has been found that there is no such name in the directory. This is the case with Bral, with many Anarchists and spies. It is presumed that he is one of the indicted men whose names were not made public. He will be held until the arrival of an officer from Chicago.

TIMELY RAIN FOR CROPS.

CHOICE OFFERED ADVERSE GOOD GRAIN FOOD CROP.

A Terrible Search in Iowa Working Incredible to Tabulate and Back to Normal by Dropping Mine—Rain Falls in Southwestern Kansas, but Grain in Immediate Injured—Wheat and Oats in the Southwestern States Are in Good Condition.

OMAHA, Neb., June 4.—[Special.]—Wheat and oats are not advanced throughout Nebraska and the weather is propitious for good crops. Corn is slightly backward here in growth and in the fact that last year's chinch bug eggs are not destroyed. Generally the prospects for a crop are all decidedly good, the intermittent rains of the last two days having done much to help the grass. Fruit has never before been so plentiful as it is now in Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 4.—[Special.]—The crop in Nebraska are not on account of the continuous rains early in the season. The seeding has been favorable since June, the late dry ground, and the rains of the last two days assure the germination of the corn. The weather is a happy one, for the people have had their fill of rain and desire sunshine.

DENVER, Col., June 4.—[Special.]—Reports from every county in the State show the crops to be in the latest condition they ever were at this season. The corn crop will be generally accepted. The corn crop will fall far short of an average, perhaps 50 per cent, while the wheat crop is little below. Corn never germinated in a more satisfactory condition and is reported as growing finely. The cotton will be better than an average. Fruit reviews group the loss of the Denver & Texas Central [illegible] have been largely the cutting and corn considerably. The increase in the acreage of cotton over last year is about 50 per cent.

ALBANY, Tex., June 4.—[Special.]—Last yesterday a terrific storm passed over Jones, Callahan, Haskell, and Stephens Counties, doing much damage to crops in many sections. Quinn, the county seats, has not suffered more materially, but corn, oats, wheat, and other grains have been seriously cut both. The wind swept everything before it. The wind swept everything before it. The wind swept everything before it

PLOTS OF THE DEMOCRATS.

GOOD TIMES DUE TO CAPTURE THE NEXT GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Quick with the Labor Leaders in Cook County and the Prohibitionists in the County Thought Certain to Win—Some Quips Revealed to Yesterday's Meeting of the State Central Committee at Springfield—Sam Church Visibly Shaking Hands with Charley Hinsley—Shifting Chairs's Successor—The Next Fight.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 3.—[Special.]—All the Democrats who have visions of political power have been shedding many lamentations over the activity displayed by the alleged anti-Labor party, which seems to menace to the Democratic ticket by drawing off Republican votes. There never grew from farmer to another any more tidal fear that ought to command to the utmost of corrective talents in our clients. In furtherance of this plan they have also decided to cast with the Labor men in Cook County in putting up congressional leaders of Democratic proclivities on the legislative tickets in every district. In districts where the Labor interest is large the leaders on the ticket will be allowed to practically name the legislative candidates. This includes the Prohibitionists, Laborites, and those men, the Democratic object to whom the most sincerely, and Democrats who will hold over until the next Democratic election, and give them power of the Central Committee for two years. These are the two plans that have been agreed upon to prove winning, while reports from the managers have been received that the anti-Democratic party has a row over the question of the Chicago mayoralty nomination.

There was a fair attendance at the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee today. Outside of the members of the Committee there were several reporters representing Democratic papers in Chicago. Except for this, the only faces from Chicago to be seen were those of Mr. Hinsley, the anti-Labor candidate for Mayor, who left Chicago early this morning in order to meet the other Cook men here in a conference of Democratic politicians.

The meeting today was devoted to considering Carroll's administration, and devising methods by which the Democratic party could profit by the mistakes that the Democrats have not been able to avoid. As most of those in attendance are Democratic statesmen who are generally reticent, the tone of conversation was over the detection of the hoodlums for the occasion and the possible use of the Executive influence. When the committee began to consider the question of an Attorney-General to succeed the venerable Gen. [illegible] Davis, [illegible], and W. J. Fleet. These vacancies were filled by the election of Mr. Allen Campbell of Springfield to Davis's place, William Hunt of Cairo to succeed Rascio, and W. H. Wright of Prospect to succeed Fleet. Without further ado Mr. Campbell was elected as Chairman of the General Committee on motion of Maj. Flack, a vote being cast, each Mr. Campbell and Mr. Hunt, the former unanimously cast into the Chairmanship of the Executive Committee. It was then decided to set the State Convention to meet in Springfield Thursday, Aug. 26, and that the basis of representation should be one delegate for every 400 votes cast under Governor Hamilton for Governor in 1884 in each county.

Chase Carries His Point.

In accordance of the day to which Chase was to be elected Chairman of the Executive Committee, Campbell announced his appointments on that body to the place of C. C. Bailey, who opened protest to the names the year. W. H. Green, the Cairo member, moved the Chair a sort of a compliment for the great exception to cast the vote by making a motion that the Chairman of the General Committee be also Chairman of the Executive Committee. This put Campbell in a hot predicament, because he had made a deal with Chase and did not want to go back on it. Green and his cronies saw the chance, and the effort to beat Chase was on for the purpose of putting the motion himself, when A. W. Weber, as proxy for W. J. Green of Pulton County, moved to lay Judge Green's motion on the table. This prevent a vigorous kick from Green of late animal gay hat, and caused considerable excitement before it was finally agreed to give the Executive Committee to choose its own Chairman.

THE SENATE PASSES THE BILL SAVING RAILROAD GRAND LAUDS.

A Victory for Van Wyck—Senatorial Opinion on the Rock Springs Massacre—Commissioner Sparks Puts Himself in the Voter Again—A Movement to Push Appeals Pension Cases—Prospects of a Navy War for Precedence in the Senate—National Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 3.—Senator Van Wyck has practically insured himself by passing the Senate his bill for the location of railroad grant lands. The object of the bill is to define the land grant railroads that are entitled to the benefits of location. Under the law passed upon the lands were accepted by the corporations that were what was there. They did not, however, complete the line by running the lines across from the Government, and hence were not subject to load, there, or the odd sections. In the case, then they were selling these lands, and one of the inducements to buyers was the freedom from taxation. Settlers on adjoining lands who had not bought of the railroads, but had taken their claims under the Homestead law, were compelled to pay taxes, and the lands could have become subject to sale. A similar bill was reported from the Committee on the Pacific Railroads in the House, and the Northern Pacific is on the lookout for the passage of the Senate bill. The Northern Pacific is on the lands granted company for building the road. The Senate measure is a general one, and applies to all of the roads, while the House bill applies to the Northern Pacific, and to that road alone. The Senate bill passed without opposition. The House bill will receive favorable action from the Committee on Public Lands, and will be reported to the House. Senator Van Wyck's measure is regarded as a victory for the Northern Pacific, and it is believed that the House bill will receive favorable action.

Senator Sparks on the Rock Springs Massacre.

Mr. Sparks called up the bill to indemnify the Chinese who were injured by the riots at Rock Springs, Wyo. The bill today stands on the Senate calendar. Mr. Sparks said that the massacre of the Chinese constituted a defect in the treaty between the United States and China, and that the Government was responsible for the damages done. The appropriation recommended by the Committee on Appropriations, and which was passed by the Senate, was not sufficient to cover the damages sustained by the Chinese. The Committee on Appropriations had cut down the appropriation from $147,748 to $150,000. The Committee on Foreign Relations had reported a bill appropriating $400,000 to cover the damages sustained by the Chinese. The Senate had passed the bill, and it was now before the House

THE AMERICAN OPERA COMPANY'S BALLET A SECOND HISTORY.

The Drama Now Interspersed with Intervals of Execution and Evolution of Master Fingers to Its Progression—The Work of the Soloist Contrasts and That of the Allied Dancing of All Points—Chicago's Church of American Opera.

The latest issue of the American opera season proves the double performance of "The Barrings of Jessamine" and "Sylvia" to the American opera company has right to the first place it must be said that Manager Smith's opera farce is to light that is twelve or thirteenth, in the eighth twelve this is subsequent to the fact that the characters are cast in the distinctive "grand role" and sing and play to them. In the execution the advantage is not. The singers presents of both Dramas are quite to the life both and acting, but both and letter who gave entire digital greatness. Mr. G. W. Williams, the tailor the part of Thomas, is the only one who looks away from the officers of the book, although the title assigned to him is light, he presently let fall to should to something to relieve the tedium of the performance. IN GENERAL.

The exposition of the Bright's Room in the Industrial Hall is to be given at the Chicago Opera-House next week is wonderfully beautiful and would be creditable to the best of our artists.

The South Side Gas Company will soon cross the South Branch at Taylor street, and from that point extend its mains into the West Division. The gas war will begin during the summer.

The last installment of silver dollars to be received from the local Sub-Treasury were in preparation yesterday, by exchange for Lyndhurst paper, to amount to $400,000.

Bids for the substruction of the double-track steam bridge at Twelfth street were opened yesterday. They ranged from $21,000 to $30,000. The contract will be given to Edward S. Cassell, the lowest bidder.
